Dynam.	timber information of KIFORMATION REPORT
TO VAY	25X1
an'et -	fortign Office Personnal NO. OF PAGES 1
	25X1 NO. OF ENGLS.
	SECTLEMENT (O- MEPORT NO. ERECTRITIONY	 T
MARTHER THE CHIEF THE CHIE	CONTROL OF THE CONTRO
TO THE PARTY	Control of Programment Management (1)
		]

* .		4 1
5X1	After the recent pures of the Augeslaw Foreign Office, almost all of the
5X1	ROLLING MEDOID WOLD Gightsel. Carleinly oil of the normarity newhore
	The remain in the Foreign Office and the Lave pre-British or US leadings are very egger to impress everyheady that they do not have such feelings, being completely error that they would not only lose that jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were known.
	one dely eagor to happens everywedy that they do not have such feelings, our very eagor to improse everywedy that they do not have such feelings, being completely evere that they would not only lose that jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were known.
	being completely evere that they would not only lose their jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were known.  Some of the pro-US-British individuals in the Foreign Office are:  (1) Director of the Historical Repartment, Professor Jovanovic, who will not jeopardize his position until he is completely ourse of the success of Great British and the US. He was in the US during World War I. He is a friend of Theor Davis; is very well read, educated, shrewi, and loves to work. He is politically of no consequence in Yugoslavia today. He is a bachalor.  (2) In the same Department is Counsellow by Jovanovic, who recently was recalled from Pertugal where he was Charge d'Affaires. He is a career diplomat; democratic in his lesuings. His recall from Pertugal to the Historical Department (dead-letter office) weems he will be discorded.
	being completely every that they would not only lose their jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were known.  Some of the pro-US-British individuals in the Foreign Office are:  (1) Director of the Historical Department, Professor Jovannic, who will not jeopardize his position until he is completely ours of the success of Great Britain and the US. He was in the US during World War I. He is a Priord of Theor Davis; is very well read, educated, shread, and loves to work. He is politically of no consequence in Nugoclavia today. He is a bachdor.  (2) In the same Department is Counsellow Dr Jovanovic, who recently was recalled from Pertugal where he was Charge d'Affaires. He is a career diplomat; democratic in his lesuings. His recall from Pertugal to the Historical Department (dead-letter office) means he will be dismissed soon. This will upont him because he supported the partisans during the same. In is fully sweet that he will be dismissed and that, in spite of his age (about 35), he will receive no per ton, but will be compelled to each a new job where the calary will be without regard to his forzer position. Contenting his at propert highly be maying, as he wight contents.
	being completely evere that they would not only lose their jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were knews.  Sees of the pro-US-British individuals in the Foreign Office are:  (1) Director of the Historical Department, Professor Jovenatic, who will not jeopardize his position until he is completely ours of the success of Great Britain and the US. He was in the US during World War I. He is a Priord of Elmon Davis; is very well read, educated, shread, and loves to work. He is politically of no consequence in Eugoslavia today. He is a bachder.  (2) In the same Department is Counsellor Dr Jovenovic, who recently was recalled from Periogal where he was Charge d'Affaires. He is a conver diplomat; democratic in his lessings. His recall from Periogal to the Historical Department (dead-latter office) means he will be dismissed soon. This will upont him because he supperced the partiagns during the sam. In is fully swere that he will be dismissed and that, in spite of his age (about 3), he will receive no perion, but will be compelled to each a new job where the calary will be without regard to his former position. Contacting him at present algebraics, as he might exploit the contact to prove his legally and avoid dismisses. He is a backelor.  The remaining non-party manders, who are also in the Historical Department, wouldn't be approachable. Counsellor Milesavrjette rould be approachable, but he bas a large family in Eugoslavia. There is no one	《《··································· being completely emere that they would not only lose their jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were known.  Sees of the pro-ES-Eritish individuals in the Foreign office are:  (1) Director of the Historical Department, Professor Jovenavia, who will not jeopardise his position until he is completely our of the success of Great Britain and the US. He was in the US during World War I. He is a friend of Elmon Devis; is very well read, educated, shrewl, and loves to work. He is a politically of no consequence in Yugoslavia today. He is a backdor.  (2) In the case Department is Counsellow Dr Jewenovic, who recently was recalled from Pertugal where he was Charge d'Affaires. He is a career diplomat; democratic in his lessings. His recall from Pertugal to the Historical Department (dead-letter office) means he will be dismissed soon. This will upon the because he supported the partisans during the war. In is fully swere that he will be dismissed and that, in spite of his age (about 15), he will receive no pertugal to his former position. Contenting his at present night to unvise, as he might exploit the content to prove his locally and avoid dismissed. He is a bachelor.  The remaining non-party manhors, who are also in the Historical Department, wouldn't be approachable. Counsellor Milesaurjevic rould be approachable, but he has a large family in Yugoslavia. There is no one of importunce in the Legal Department.	《《《文·《································
	being completely evere that they would not only lose their jobs but suffer the consequences if the truth were knews.  Sees of the pro-US-British individuals in the Foreign Office are:  (1) Director of the Historical Department, Professor Jovenatic, who will not jeopardize his position until he is completely ours of the success of Great Britain and the US. He was in the US during World War I. He is a Priord of Elmon Davis; is very well read, educated, shread, and loves to work. He is politically of no consequence in Eugoslavia today. He is a bachder.  (2) In the same Department is Counsellor Dr Jovenovic, who recently was recalled from Periogal where he was Charge d'Affaires. He is a conver diplomat; democratic in his lessings. His recall from Periogal to the Historical Department (dead-latter office) means he will be dismissed soon. This will upont him because he supperced the partiagns during the sam. In is fully swere that he will be dismissed and that, in spite of his age (about 3), he will receive no perion, but will be compelled to each a new job where the calary will be without regard to his former position. Contacting him at present algebraics, as he might exploit the contact to prove his legally and avoid dismisses. He is a backelor.  The remaining non-party manders, who are also in the Historical Department, wouldn't be approachable. Counsellor Milesavrjette rould be approachable, but he bas a large family in Eugoslavia. There is no one	《《《文·《································

SECRET